WIND'S PICKING UP

NORTHERN areas are likely to be a bit unsettled today, with quite a bit of wind and spells of rain.

Breezy with sunshine and showers in the south.

Temperatures of 17C in London, 16C in Cardiff and Manchester, 13C in Belfast and 14C in Edinburgh.

There should be sunny intervals for most tomorrow but also areas of cloud and scattered showers in the north and west.

Temperatures of 16C in London, 15C in Cardiff, 13C in Manchester, 11C in Belfast and 15C in Edinburgh.

OUTLOOK: Fresher.

THOUGHT OF THE WEEK...

GOOD old Boris Johnson isn't daft is he?

Opens up the barbers and pubs for a fresh cut and a pint with the lads.

Knowing full well the missus doesn't want to be seen out in public with bushy brows and stumpy nails, so he's kept beauty salons closed so she can stay at home and mind the kids.

The bloke's a genius!

THAT'S NET FUNNY!

My hero sausage dog bit off dirty flasher's willy

SWARMING: Thousands flocked to Bournemouth last week

A DAY tripper was saved from a slavering flasher when his brave little sausage dog bit off the pervert's PECKER!

As temperatures soared and the blazing sun shone last week, Julian Waldegrave decided to escape the heat of London.

The 35-year-old design consultant packed loyal sausage dog Wilfred into his specially-designed carry-case and set off towards Bournemouth.

Unfortunately, tens of thousands of other people – freed from the shackles of lockdown – had the same idea, and when Julian stepped off the train he joined a throng heading for the beach.

Julian told Sunday Sport: "It was pandemonium and I feared little Wilfred would get stepped on. I had to find a much quieter place for us to enjoy the sunshine."

Julian searched the internet for tips and eventually found a site that seemed to promise quiet locations.

He said: "It was called Dorset Secret Cruising, or something – I assumed it was something to do with sailing – and it recommended a little cove which was promised to be 'discreet yet welcoming'.

"It was spot on. I laid out the picnic rug and got out my sandwiches. Then – blow me! – a naked man came out of a bush and asked me if I was 'after action'.

"I thought 'Ewww! A flasher'. Poor little Wilfred was so startled but he bravely attacked the pervert and bit his willy clean off!

"In all the kerfuffle, some sand got down my shorts so I took them off and was brushing it off my private area when a police officer turned up.

"I tried to explain what had happened but I was arrested for outraging public decency.

"It's a travesty of justice!"

First tourist space walk by 2023

RUSSIA'S Energia space corporation will take the first ever tourist out on a space walk in 2023, under the terms of a new contract with a US partner.

Energia has signed a contract with Yank firm Space Adventures, which promises to take two space tourists to the International Space Station that year.

A spokesman said: "One of the participants of the expedition will do a space walk from the Russian segment, together with a pro Russian cosmonaut."

THE former X Factor winner Alexandra Burke says record label bosses told her to "bleach her skin" so that she would appear whiter.

That's awful.

The only thing any woman should consider bleaching is her arsehole… and Alexandra's arsehole has already been bleached.

Well, his teeth have. Haven't they, Simon?

TUESDAY

BORIS Johnson announces that pubs can re-open on July 4th.

Yee-haw! It'll be like American Independence Day but without the fireworks.

Although Doreen from the Rose and Crown will probably get her bangers out after her third port-and-lemonade.

Like America, we'll also mark the day with a series of parades. Identity parades count, right?

WEDNESDAY

AMERICAN girl band The Dixie Chicks drop the word Dixie from their name because it has connotations with the Deep South's racist past. From now on they will now be known as The Chicks – although we can't see that lasting long.

Firstly, it must be offensive to women, animal lovers and the vegan community.

And secondly, chicks? That must be in breach of the Trade Descriptions Act. They've been belting out tunes since before racism was bad.

Still, we wish them luck and are very much looking forward to The 's next album.

THURSDAY

A STUDY of internet dating websites shows that women are LESS likely to pick a man who is photographed cuddling a cat.

The message is simple: if you want to stroke her pussy, don't stroke yours.

FRIDAY

THE government threatens to close beaches after half a million people cram onto the Dorset coast.

One witness reported seeing a man beating his wife at Bournemouth beach, abusing an animal and even assaulting a police officer.

And that was all BEFORE the crocodile came and stole his string of sausages.

THERE'S history made in Hollywood as a robot is cast in a lead role for a big budget movie.

She can also perform basic actions, like blinking.

A spokesman for the BBC's One Show said: "We wish Alex Jones well in her new venture and look forward to watching the finished movie!"

Slippery slope. They'll be licking each other's pvssies next

By BRAD CHADWICK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

BETWEEN them Kendall and Kylie Jenner are worth more than a billion dollars – but money cannot protect them from the sick fantasies of the Daily Mail reader.

Because when the reality TV sisters released a new advert for their make-up that featured them touching each other, the fetid minds of the so-called newspaper's readers went into overdrive.

And they flocked to the Mail Online in droves to spill the products of their disturbed imaginings and accused them of incest.

Commentators suggested that Kylie, 22, and Kendall, 24, were indulging in all manner of illegal sexual activity including licking each other's minges and pissing on each other.

Dumptrump 2020 said: "Slippery slope, they'll be licking each other's pussies next," and Delcor replied "Looks like they already did that."

Ugly Bob chipped in: "They clearly lick each other out," and So over from New Zealand added: "Next they'll be peeing on each other."

Friends of the Keeping Up with the Kardashians siblings were horrified.

Naked gimp crashes girls' picnic in park

A NAKED man in a GIMP MASK who exposed himself to two teenage girls at a beauty spot is being hunted by cops.

Video taken by one of the girls shows the pervert running off after waggling his cock at them.

The mother of one of the girls, who did not want to be named, said the suspect wore black shoes as well as a black mask and sunglasses.

She said the two girls were having a picnic at Rabbit Braes, near Kirkcaldy in Fife, and added: "He walked right past them, brazen as anything. He stared at them all the time, never uttered a word."

The mum said one of the girls took a video, which was "smart thinking", when the suspect understood he he was being filmed, he started walking back towards them.

The girl, however, then said "Siri, phone mum" and he ran off.

They called cops, who are looking for the man.

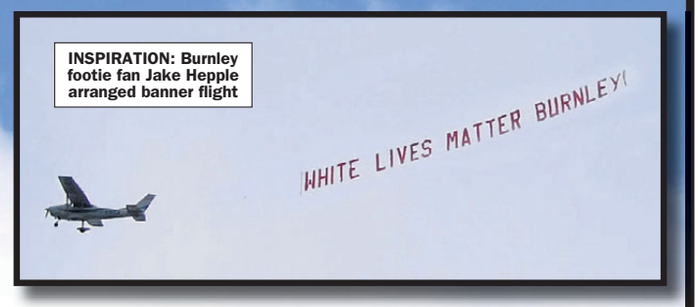
Pervert exposed in sky-high banner



INSPIRATION: Burnley footie fan Jake Hepple arranged banner flight

IT was perhaps, in the current climate, not the brightest thing to do.

By BARNEY SAMUELS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Burnley fan Jake Hepple, 24, arranged for a light aircraft to tow a banner with "White Lives Matter" on it across the sky above Manchester City's Etihad stadium last week.

Below, Burnley and City players were "taking the knee" as part of the Black Lives Matter campaign, in the wake of the murder of George Floyd by a policeman in Minneapolis.

Hepple's stunt won him a tsunami of outrage, a ban from Burnley's Turf Moor ground and the sack from his engineering job.

But the stunt also proved to be an inspiration to animal lovers, furious that charges had been dropped against a Blackburn dog bummer.

Clarkson Whiley, 54, was arrested and interviewed under caution earlier this year on suspicion of having sex with his dog, who can't be named for legal reasons.

Last week it was announced there wasn't enough evidence to prosecute Whiley.

That enraged local animal lovers and last week they clubbed together and paid for a plane to tow a banner "outing" Whiley as a pet bummer.

A spokesman for the group who organised the flight – who asked not to be named for fear of reprisals – said: "That Burnley fan gave us the idea. We want to show that animal bummers have no place in Blackburn, or indeed in any part of east Lancashire."

Last night Clarkson Whiley would not answer the door at his terraced home, the front door of which has been daubed with the words: "Ete shit dog boomer".

Meanwhile Jake Hepple said he did not regret his stunt, adding: "I'm not racist. I know people are trying to make me out to be one, but I'm not. I've got lots of Black and Asian friends and this banner was actually inspired by the Black Lives Movement.

"We were not trying to offend the movement or black people. I believe it's also important to acknowledge that white lives matter, too. That's all we're trying to say."

Cheeky bathtub wanted by cops

COPS are baffled by a series of reports that a man wearing just a towel and carrying a sponge went knocking on doors asking to used complete strangers' bathrooms.

Police in Truro, Cornwall, are hoping to find some information about the man and his intentions, who may have been accompanied by another man, who was dressed.

Sergeant Marc Sayers, of Truro Community Police Team, said: "We had reports of a male wearing only a towel knocking on doors in Truro asking to use the occupier's bath or shower.

"He was carrying a wash bag and a sponge. He was refused and left. He may have been with another male close by, who was dressed.

"It's unusual behaviour and we are asking for any information on this."

Lockdown loon locked up for EATING his own foot

UNHAPPY Gilbert Newman has been locked up in the loony bin after chopping off his own foot with an axe... and EATING IT!

Former librarian Mr Newman (left), 54, only dialled 999 TWO WEEKS after his gut-churning foot feast when he realised that the remaining stump was turning septic.

When they arrived, horrified emergency services found a scene of "unimaginable gore" at Mr Newman's flat in Glossop, Derbyshire.

A bloodied axe was on the living room floor and the remains of the ghoulish meal were covered in mould on the kitchen table.

It's believed that Mr Newman – who was ultimately sacked from his library job for being inappropriate in the reference section – told attending medics that he had been "struggling" with lockdown.

It's believed that prior to chopping off his foot he had existed on a diet of crisps, bread, biscuits, strong cider and roll-up ciggies since late March, when the lockdown was announced.

He was rushed to hospital where surgeons were forced to remove the lower part of his leg, which had become severely infected and was said to be "crawling" with insects.

Though physically recovered Mr Newman is now undergoing mental evaluation at a secure psychiatric facility.

The axe has been confiscated by the authorities.

An emergency services source said: We are aware the lockdown has affected some people badly.

"Still, we filed this under NFG – Normal For Glossop."

Sex assault Crosby 'was racism victim'

DIRTY Bill Cosby's wife says her sex criminal husband was locked up because of…RACISM.

Camille Cosby, in her first interview in six years, spoke out after the Pennsylvania Supreme Court agreed to review two aspects of Bill's case.

Her 82-year-old husband is serving three to 10 years after a jury found him guilty of drugging and sexually assaulting Andrea Constand in 2004.

The court will review the judge's decision to allow prosecutors to call five other accusers and to introduce evidence he'd given women knockout drug Quaaludes.

Camille slammed #MeToo activists in the interview.

She said: "The #MeToo movement has intentional ignorance pertaining to the history of particular white women, who have from the very beginning, pertaining to the enslavement of African people, accused black males of sexual assault without any proof whatsoever on the face of the Earth."

Nic uncomfortable doing nude scenes

NICHOLAS Hoult has revealed he felt intimidated filming sex scenes in Skins at the age of 17, and that he would like to stop going nude onscreen.

In interview, Hoult, 30, revealed his time on the show came before the normalisation of intimacy co-ordinators in the film and television business.

He described himself as a "kid doing a job" during the intimate scenes.

"I'd done it for a long time at that point, but it's also a weird position to be put in," he said.

"Not that they were bad experiences or anything…It comes much more from, 'Just get this done as quickly as possible so I can be comfortable again and carry on with the part of acting I like'."

Hoult has not shied away from nude scenes throughout his career, including in the recent historical drama True History of the Kelly Gang.

He revealed a nude scene in it made him nervous due to a Shetland pony that was on set.

"In my mind, I'm like, 'This pony just got lured in here with a carrot. I'm sitting here naked. It's looking at me like I'm a tasty snack'," he said.

Drugged WWE ace Keith's 'lost night'

WWE powerhouse Keith Lee has opened up about being "drugged on a night out" and waking up naked in a hotel bedroom.

In a Twitter posting, he suggested he had once been out of his skull in a karaoke bar after a "young lady" approached him in Dallas, Texas in either 2016 or 2017.

After he rejected her advances due to being "taken at the time", she opted to buy him a drink, a gesture he accepted as he went to the toilet.

Lee, 35, explained: "Unfortunately… it's right around here things become extremely fuzzy.

"All I find myself able to recall is struggling to make it to the stage…and stumbling toward a car.

"After that…I recall waking up naked in a hotel room (I don't even recall if it was my own room), confused and in a panic. I was fortunate enough to have my essentials such as wallet and phone. But… who knows what I lost."

Boss of easyJet apologises for 'racist' advert

BUDGET airline easyJet has apologised after describing Italy as the "land of Mafia and earthquakes" in an ad.

"For an authentic taste of Italian life, there's nothing better than Calabria," the airline's ad read in Italian on its website.

"The region suffers from a distinct lack of tourists because of its history of Mafia activity and earthquakes."

Calabria – which occupies the "toe" of the boot-shaped country – is actually home to the 'Ndrangheta organised crime syndicate – but it also features stunning beaches, national parks and other top tourist attractions.

The area also was mostly spared from the coronavirus outbreak and is eager to welcome tourists during the peak summer season.

Calabria's governor, Jole Santelli, said the advert was "offensive, distorted and had a clear racist flavour".

EasyJet CEO Johan Lundgren (above) sent a letter of apology to Mr Santelli, edited the offensive reference and promised to investigate.

Welshmen up for it outdoors

AROUND one in five blokes say they've had sex outdoors.

A study revealed that men from Wales and women from the East of England are the most likely to get frisky in the open air.

Thirty-five percent of Welsh chaps said they had been at it al fresco, while 32% of women in the East said the same.

But only 16% of Welsh women and 25% of men from the East said the same.

In Scotland, 19% of men and 12% of women admitted getting it on outdoors.

The survey of 2,000 people by sex toy firm Tenga revealed just 16% of London men had outdoor sex and 5% of London girls.

The study found that the least likely men to bonk in public were from the North East.

LIVING STATUE MIME ARTIST PELTED WITH EXCREMENT

Black Lives Matter activists thought Ron was slave trader

MONU-MENTAL: Bristol protesters and (left) Ron

WHEN he was laid off from his job as a lavatory tester, Ron Ward despaired of finding such a fulfilling and financially-rewarding career again.

By BARNEY SAMUELS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

But he was wrong and for the past five summers, Ron has amused and slightly bemused tourists in the historic city of Chester as a "living statue".

Dressed to resemble the marble likeness of an 18th century gent, Ron stands below the city's historic Rows, pretending to be a statue.

Ron, 55, said: "It's a lovely job, not too taxing and quite well-paid.

"The early months of this year were a bit quiet due to the lockdown but things were starting to pick up…"

It turned out that lockdown was not the only challenge Ron had to face.

Because, when a black man was murdered by a policeman 4,000 miles away, statues of historic figures in the United Kingdom suddenly became controversial objects.

Ron said: "I noticed all these people were looking at me and a few young people were taking photos and shouting 'Shame' and 'Black Lives Matter'.

"I had no idea what they were on about. Then one lout in a bandana ran up and threw something at me – it was HUMAN FILTH!

"Seem that because I was in 18th century garb, I must be dressed as a statue of a slave trader.

"After what they did to that statue of Edward Colston in Bristol, I'm lucky they didn't throw me in the River Dee."

For now, Ron's decided to give the statue game a rest.

He said: "This mob will soon lose interest in the BLM thing and start rioting for the trannies, or something. I'll keep my head down till then."

THE BRITISH BLUE-SEUM!

Lesbian porn artefact goes out on display

THE British Museum has added a Roman-era oil lamp depicting a scene of lesbian MINGE LICKING sex to its permanent exhibition.

The museum, which is currently closed due the coronavirus pandemic but usually attracts about six million visitors a year, have added several new objects.

Among them are the lamp, a novelty "nine-bob note", a Greek coin depicting the lesbo poet Sappho, Japanese Kabuki prints and a medallion from a cross-dressing spy .

They will go on display in the museum as part of its LGBTQQI+ tour illustrating gayness in history.

The terracotta lamp dates back to the first century AD and shows two naked women engaged in energetic oral sex.

That was something that was very likely taboo in Roman society, according to researchers, who say it may just be a depiction of a male fantasy rather than reality.

Museums in London aren't due to start reopening until July 4 but the British Museum wanted to announce the new additions as part of Pride season.

A source said: "Essentially, it's just an ancient obscene publication but if we say it's all about diversity, we can get away with it."

THE VOICE OF YOUR BRITAIN

Bummer not responsible free speech

IT is now more than 100 years since the esteemed American jurist Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes defined the sensible limits of free speech.

The Supreme Court judge, in a written opinion, declared: "The most stringent protection of free speech would not protect a man falsely shouting fire in a theatre and causing a panic".

Justice Holmes's words have rightly gone down in history and we should continue to reflect on them.

With free speech comes heavy responsibility.

Young Jake Hepple no doubt believed he was exercising his right to free speech when he arranged for a plane to tow a banner reading "White Lives Matter" over a game of Association Football.

The authorities have decided what he did was not criminal.

But was it the responsible thing to do with the country ablaze amid racial strife?

Likewise, was it responsible for animal rights activists to brand a Blackburn resident a "pet bummer" in a banner flown behind an aeroplane?

Free speech is a treasured cornerstone of our democracy.

Men and women have died over the years to defend it.

But our forebears did not battle for freedom of speech so that innocent people could be branded pet bummers in the skies over Blackburn.

Was stone-age man's mind so un-henged?

THE mystery of Stonehenge has captivated our nation for countless generations.

Back in the mists of time – millennia before the birth of Our Saviour Lord Jesus Christ – men created this vast erection high on Salisbury Plain using primitive technologies.

Now the outline of a gigantic-COCK 'N' BALLS has been found near the ancient site.

The workings of our ancestors' minds shall remain an enigma for generations to come.

RUGBY CLUB STRIPPER SINGS RAUNCHY SONG WITH LADS

VOLUN-CHEER: Babe has brought food and smiles to local shielders during pandemic

SUNDAY Sport EXCLUSIVE

S AS SHE BARES HER SAGGY BOOBS

ving low, sweet Harriet

RUGGER fans may no longer be able to sing Swing Low, Sweet Chariot if campaigners manage to get their way...

However, sweet HARRIET Marshall has vowed to keep "swinging low".

The 59-year-old strippagram can hardly do anything else because her saggy old dugs dangle almost to her knees!

With rugby clubs – along with all other boozing venues – being closed for the last three months due to lockdown, it's been a thin old time for veteran clothes-peeler Harriet.

But she's been keeping busy, volunteering to take food parcels to shielding oldsters near her home in Biddulph, Staffs.

Funbags

And the cheeky minx has even brightened up lockdown for several old fellas by giving them a flash of her floppy funbags through the window.

But now she's ready to get back to work and already has several bookings for July 4 – when boozers reopen.

By SIMON DEAN
simon@sundaysport.co.uk

And she's not at all bothered about the fuss surrounding Swing Low.

She told Sunday Sport: "Do you think that the average rugby player will stop singing a song because someone says it's not PC?

"Have you heard many rugby songs?

"It's not a debate I want to get into. Swing Low Sweet Chariot will still be the song I do my act to.

"How could I not, with my name rhyming with 'chariot'?"

The Rugby Football Union announced it would review the song – which could lead to it being BANNED at future rugby matches

The RFU said many people were not aware of the song's links with slavery.

It is thought Swing Low, Sweet Chariot was written in the mid-19th century by Wallace Willis, who was a black slave.

It's not immediately clear why that makes it racist.

Corrie has lost all its laughs, moans Mavis

CORRIE legend legend Mavis Wilton has told how the soap has lost its humour over the years, saying: "I don't see much to laugh at now."

Mavis, aka actress Thelma Barlow, 91, appeared in the ITV soap for 26 years before the character left the cobbles for a new life in the Lake District in 1997.

And Thelma said it's a "pity" that Coronation Street has many dark storylines with "so many murders" these days and that it lacks warmth and humour.

Speaking on a podcast, she said: "The Street, when I was in it, had this wonderful thing of comedy, the comedy characters. It was held in such high regard when I was in it. And the warmth of the public was noticeable.

"I don't watch it regularly now. I occasionally will have a look but I don't see much to laugh at now. I think it's a shame."

TAKE A PEAKE: Maxine in the C4 show and (inset) Starmer

LABOUR GOES TITS-UP OVER MAXINE

THE Labour Party has once again descended into a squabble between the leftists and the modernisers.

This time the People's Party is tearing itself apart over the front bench sacking of Shadow Education Secretary Rebecca Long-Bailey.

Corbyn loyalist Mrs Long-Bailey was asked to stand down after retweeting an interview which Labour leader Sir Keir Starmer said contained an anti-Semitic conspiracy theory.

The interview, with actress Maxine Peake, wrongly suggested the Minneapolis police who killed George Floyd learned violent tactics from Israeli secret services.

Former Communist Maxine later tweeted that she was wrong and withdrew the claim which many saw as anti-Jewish.

But by then the damage had been done and Mrs Long-Bailey had her marching orders – provoking fury on the Left of the Labour Party.

But it's not the first time that Maxine Peake has been at the centre of controversy – between 2004 and 2007 she played Veronica Ball in the gritty C4 series Shameless – at one point baring her pert breasts.

A Labour source from the left of the party said: "Starmer-ites have brought Maxine's topless past to light to discredit her.

"That's because Starmer is a puppet of international moneymen!"

Joy-rider faces 30 years for stealing £1m yatch

AS joy-rides go, this one was pretty impressive...

A man stole, crashed and then abandoned a yacht worth almost £1m in March, evading police for three months before being arrested.

The nautical no-gooder, 28-year-old Donovan Jester (right), stole the boat from a dock in St. Petersburg, Florida, then left it after crashing it into channel-marker pilings, according to cops.

The boat then drifted into a nearby oyster bed, where it was discovered by police who were able to identify Jester by a thumbprint left on the cabin door.

He was charged with theft and faces up to 30 years in prison.

The stolen yacht was identified by authorities as a 46-foot Jeanneau Leader.

On its site, Jeanneau markets the luxury vessel with provocative terms, describing "her sinuous profile" and "sporty look" and says its interior "will seduce you with her contemporary spirit."

It also has two large cabins, including an owner's suite that can fit a king-sized bed.

Jester is being held at the county lock-up.

Drunk held over street sh*t video bail breach

AN "extremely intoxicated" man shat in the street then wiped his arse on chip papers while on police bail for throwing bread at a woman.

Patrick McGonagle, 57, of Shantallow, Londonderry, appeared in court charged with breaching bail by "intentionally exposing his genitals".

He had been released on bail two days earlier after being charged with common assault, namely throwing bread at a woman and trying to grab her in public.

A police officer said on June 17 authorities became aware of a vid online showing a man acting in an "indecent manner", from which McGonagle was identified.

The officer added: "He used chip shop wrappers to wipe himself. He was extremely intoxicated."

Objecting to bail, the officer said on June 15 McGonagle was warned about his behaviour and not to be intoxicated in a public place.

The court heard McGonagle has 82 previous convictions and two suspended sentences.

McGonagle was remanded in custody due to a "clear risk of reoffending" and will reappear by way of video link on July 6.

KATIE'S HAPPY LOSING KNIX!

CURVY Katie Ryder says she's always being asked if she's related to Happy Monday's idol SHAUN RYDER!

She said: "Just because I'm from the north, like Shaun, they think we must be related. Well, we're not – not that I know, leastways.

"Maybe very distantly. Perhaps they could get us on Who Do You Think You Are? to find out!"

Katie also says she often goes out COMMANDO to parties and she loves a bit of BUM FUN!

The 28-year-old from Preston said: "I don't mind a bit of back-door action. I like to keep it for special occasions – like birthdays and Christmas."

The 30G cracker added: "If you use lots of lube you're good to go!"

HOT BOT RIGHT NOW: Singer took time away from recording to soak up sun

I would use her POO for TOOTHPASTE

By SUZIE SHELDON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

EVEN if you are not a fan of her music, you have to worship her hot little bod.

Songstress Rita Ora has been isolating in a rented Cotswolds farmhouse during UK lockdown.

And the babe has been passing the time by not only recording new songs but also stripping off for sexy snaps.

Soaking up the sun, the Hot Right Now star, 29, peeled down to her undies in her latest slew of sizzling snapshots.

And Rita cheekily admitted she'd sneaked away from a recording session for an impromptu photo shoot in an idyllic countryside backdrop.

When the photos were later published on the Daily Mail's website, several users posted flattering comments on her delightful looks.

Sadly, others were more spiteful – and some were off-the-scale REVOLTING!

DEVIANTS: Comments posted on Mail online

Mail online reader UpTheDonald slavered: "Would use her poo for toothpaste."

Anal

Another said he would smash Rita's "front and back doors in" – a crude euphemism for having both anal and vaginal sex with a lady.

And yet another user made the vile suggestion that Rita has a "minge like a punched lasagne."

A friend of Rita's said: "The idea that a Daily Mail reader would like to smear her excrement on his toothbrush and then use it as toothpaste is both revolting and unhygienic.

"The Daily Mail used to be such a respected newspaper – now, it just seems to attract all the deviants."

Bidet firm's £8k offer to plop diarist

A BIDET company is offering to pay someone £8,000 to study their plopping habits over the summer.

The official "doodies" of Tushy's "VP of Faecal Matters" will document their diet and bowel movements daily for three months and describe their experiences on the brand's social media.

"All you have to do is poop every day for three months and record what you're doing," Tushy founder Miki Agrawal said.

This will also include noting differences between using regular toilet paper and the firm's arse-cleaning products, which will be provided.

"We wanted to do something that had a little bit of levity while people are out of jobs right now, and we wanted to offer a fun job that will leave someone flush with funds", Agrawal added.

Uni girl beats pals with 15 LESBO conquests in a FORTNIGHT

AH, the invincibility of youth!

Young folk rightly assumed coronavirus is a minimal threat to them, and have been ignoring UK lockdown regulations.

Whether gathering on street corners spitting, hurling statues into ponds, or engaging in largely-peaceful riots in Brixton, Britain's youth has poo-poohed much of the panic surrounding COVID-19.

LICKING OUT other ladies' MINGES!

Bisexual Becky Williams – who studies modern dance and movement at the University of West Lancashire, took part in a sexy dare with pals.

Over the course of a fortnight, the girls were challenged to suck as much quim as possible.

And they had to FILM the labia-licking exploits.

The fortnight ended on Thursday with Becky the proud owner of 15 minge-mauling movies – making her the winner.

The 20-year-old, from Hanley in the Potteries, said: "Don't get me wrong – I love the cock and I love spunk. I like sucking cock, having cock in my fully-shaved wet pussy and even a hard cock in the bum.

"But I also love licking out dripping fanny. One of the girls I licked out was a squirter!

"You haven't lived until a woman has gushed her hot juices over your face.

"That is my favourite video and, no, you can't print pictures of it in the paper!"

Becky's prize for being the cunny-suck champ was a double ended dildo.

AS EMMA WATSON THROWS HER OAR IN WITH THE BRA-BURNING BRIGADE...

MEET THE FILFS*

3-PAGE SPECIAL

By REX ROWLANDS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

IT may come as a surprise to some, but feminism is not all banging on about the patriarchy, intersectionality and the third wave...

Because many famous feminists love to get their busters out, too!

Last week Harry Potter star Emma Watson weighed in with her opinion about women's rights.

But the perky 30-year-old isn't the only celebrity to reveal her pro-women politics.

And good on them!

There may still be some blokes – and women – who think ladies should still be in the kitchen, cooking the tea or popping out babies every year.

But not us.

We are all for ladies' rights.

Women are as good as men at everything – except reading maps and reverse parking.

They definitely have a better memory, too, just ask my missus about that thing I said about her bum looking big at her Aunt Mary's 80th birthday party back in 2007.

Anyway, help us celebrate feminism today with three fun-packed pages of the world's most famous feminists, with their knockers out!

*That's feminists I'd like to fk!

WOMEN'S RIGHTS... AND LEFTS, TOO! Emma poses with a teat out

MILEY CYRUS

POP babe Miley, 28, says the best way for women to fight for equality is to not be scared, adding: ""I feel like I'm one of the biggest feminists in the world, as I tell women to not be scared of anything."

CHARLIZE THERON

MONSTER actress Charlize, 44, says: "I'm proud to say I am a fking feminist.

"I remember always saying being a feminist meant a different thing to everybody.

"And I would apologise for it. And I had to ask, why was that? Why couldn't I just say, 'Yes, I'm a feminist?'"

Er...OK.

MEET THE FILFS

REESE WITHERSPOON

REESE, 44, was so fed up of sexism in the movie business, she set up her own production company.

She said: "I was talking to my girlfriends who are actresses, and we were like, 'There's nothing out there, they're really not making anything for us'.

"So I thought, 'I'll start a company, self-funded, and I'll start developing roles for women. I'm really proud."

CLAIRE DANES

CLAIRE, 41, says things have improved for females but reckons there's a long way to go, adding: "I am a feminist. Yes, women have more freedom and more influence than ever, but it's hardly equal."

ASHLEY JUDD

ASHLEY, 51, is serious about her political views, saying: "Patriarchy is not men. Patriarchy is a system in which both women and men participate. It privileges, inter alia, the interests of boys and men over the bodily integrity, autonomy, and dignity of girls and women."

MADONNA

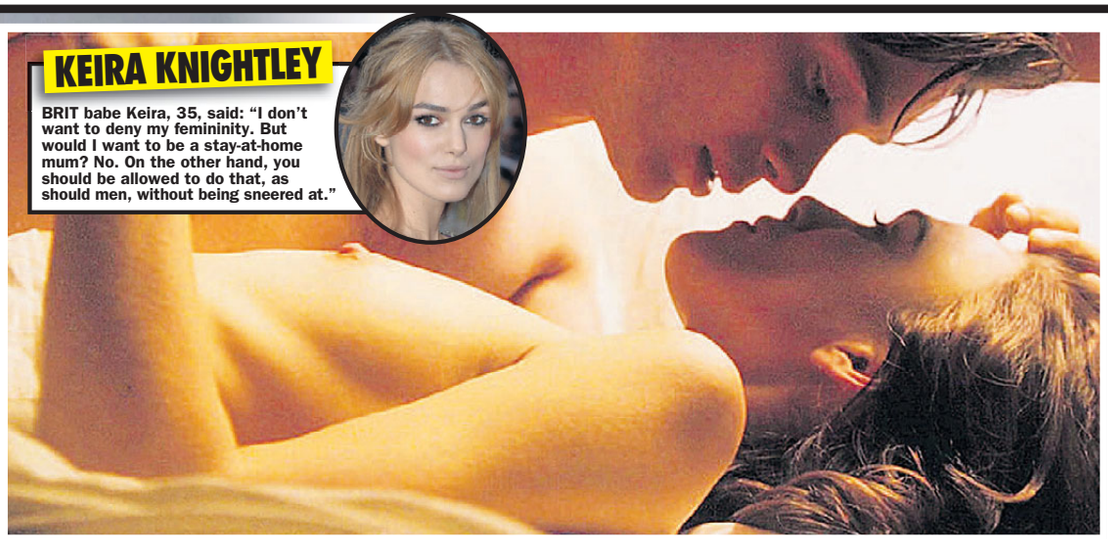
NOT only did pop star Madonna, 61, wear a T-shirt with 'feminist' written on it, she spoke about it too, saying: "Feminism means that we're all human beings and we deserve to be treated with dignity and respect."

ELISABETH MOSS

ACTRESS Elisabeth, 37, said: "Feminism is equal rights for men and women. Men and women are both humans, so, for me, that makes my characters and the work that I do human stories."

EMILY RATAJKOWSKI

FOR model and actress Emily, feminism is about the freedom to get her tits out without being criticised, adding: "Feminism is about the choices we make, and the freedom we have to make personal choices without judgement or retribution."



KEIRA KNIGHTLEY

BRIT babe Keira, 35, said: "I don't want to deny my femininity. But would I want to be a stay-at-home mum? No. On the other hand, you should be allowed to do that, as should men, without being sneered at."

PATRICIA ARQUETTE

PATRICIA, 51, spoke up for women's rights while picking up an Oscar, saying: "It's our time to have wage equality once and for all and equal rights for women."

JESSICA CHASTAIN

JESSICA, 43, said: "I've always been someone who has spoken up for gender equality, for eliminating the gender pay gap, and for the importance of women in leadership and power."

ELLEN PAGE

CANADIAN lesbian Ellen, 31, said: "I don't know why people are so reluctant to say they're feminists. Feminism always gets associated with being a radical movement – good. It should be."

JENNIFER LAWRENCE

HUNGER Games babe Jennifer, 29, reckons being a woman makes it harder to get paid as much as men, adding: "I'm over trying to find the 'adorable' way to state my opinion and still be likable.

"I don't think I've ever worked for a man in charge who spent time contemplating what angle he should use to have his voice heard… it's just heard."

GERMAINE GREER

AUSSIE Germaine wrote the book on feminism, literally – her 1970 publication The Female Eunuch revolutionised the women's Rights movement… and she's still at it to this day!

12-INCH leech pulled from old man's penis

SWIMMER: Leech got into man's cock in river

By SUZIE SHELDON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

DOCTORS removed a leech that swam up an elderly man's COCK while he was swimming – and drank a full PINT of his blood.

The unnamed patient first knew something was wrong after he started experiencing severe pain while trying to use the bathroom.

He wound up at a hospital in Phnom Penh, Cambodia, where a tiny camera was inserted into his penis, which revealed the culprit to be a leech.

Bladder

The 70-year-old told doctors that he went swimming in a river earlier that day, leading them to deduce that the privacy-violating parasite had swum up his urethra and into his bladder.

And this lead to the hospital warning locals in a statement that "the waters are rich with leeches and insects during the rainy season."

Sadly, removal was complicated by the fact that the interloper had ballooned up to a much larger size after sucking a pint of the victim's blood – hence his pain while urinating.

The critter was found to be almost a FOOT long when they finally pulled it out.

Teeth

Not only that, but it had already injured parts of the old man's organs with its teeth.

To safely extract the vile visitor, doctors were forced to use a tiny probe with electric nodes and cutting tools at the end of it, to kill the leech before yanking it back out the way it came in.

Fortunately, the man was released from the hospital after spending the night there and is said to be faring OK after the skin-crawling ordeal.

FEELAGE IDIOT

DIRTY Francis Keen, 66, was arrested when he shocked locals in quiet Naugatuck, Connecticut, by furiously masturbating under a gazebo pitched on the village green.

Sex addict wants £20m compo from vid streamer

A MAN is suing video streaming service Twitch for £20million in damages for being exposed to "overly suggestive and sexual content" on the site.

The lawsuit filed by Erik Estavillo includes images of numerous scantily-clad female Twitch streamers.

In the complaint, Estavillo says he's a sex addict who also suffers from depression, obsessive-compulsive disorder, agoraphobia, and Crohn's disease, so he "heavily relies on the internet for all his entertainment purposes."

It continues: "Twitch has exacerbated his condition by displaying sexually suggestive women streamers.

"In addition, Twitch also takes advantage of the plaintiff and many other sexually addicted viewers by allowing them to 'Subscribe, Donate or Pay Bits' to these women streamers.

"Twitch uses this immediate gratification reward system against their sexually addicted viewers like a casino would."

In the summons, served by the Superior Court of California, Estavillo "requests relief" and the vast sum of compo.

In the past, he has sued other major firms, but without success.

Pervert filmed women naked

A TANNING salon worker has been nicked for hiding a camera phone in one of the booths to watch ladies undressing.

Perverted Karson Landcaster (above) was rumbled after a woman discovered his mobile phone recording her as she undressed.

When cops arrived, they found 25-year-old Landcaster had hidden phones to record in all of the six booths at Palm Beach Tan in Flower Mound near Fort Worth, Texas.

He was arrested on suspicion of improper photography or visual recording.

Detectives found more than 500 hours of footage of ladies undressing on Landcaster's computer at his home.

They are now trying to identify other victims.

AS COSTUME DRAMA THE LUMINARIES HITS OUR SCREENS...

BEEB STAR EVA'S A BOOB AND BUSH-BARING BABE

PROPER MADAM: Eve and Himesh in the show

ILLUMINATING: Eva has got the lot out for our pleasure in many roles over the years

By WENDY THOMAS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

AS is now traditional when a new BBC series hits our screens, the arrival of The Luminaries on BBC1 last Sunday was greeted with howls of "the cast are mumbling" and "the lighting's awful".

But a solid 5.3million people still tuned in to watch adaptation of Eleanor Catton's 2013 novel.

Set in New Zealand at the height of the 1860s gold rush, it tells the story of new British arrival Anna Wetherell, played by Eve Hewson, daughter of pint-sized U2 gob-on-a-stick Bono.

Anna is taken under the wing of brothel owner Lydia Wells, played by Eva Green, and takes a romantic interest in Emery Stains, played by Himesh Patel.

Ha! Eva Green.

No matter what you think about the sound, lighting or plot of The Luminaries, Paris-born Eva has been in some roles that nobody has ANY complaints about.

Because, being French, Eva has NO problems about getting her kit off to show off her magnifique busters or even her luxuriant minge – which is as heavily bushed as the Bois De Boulogne.

One fan of 39-year-old Eva said: "I've spilled a lot of seed over Eva Green over the years. I wrote to tell her about it once and am still awaiting a reply."

Zombie doc caged for choking nurse

A DOCTOR has been jailed for 30 days for throttling a nurse who tried to stop him from turning off vital-signs machines because they were "too loud".

Mark Randle Ryan, 58 (left), admitted assaulting Beth Duche, 51, in front of patients and colleagues at a Lone Tree medical centre in Colorado in October 2018, but insisted he had "blacked out" and become a "zombie".

He told his sentencing hearing: "All I could tell was that my hands were around, feel your jaw, feel throat, soft tissues – I did not know what was going on. I remember separating hands away from the throat."

By BRAD CHADWICK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Shocked

His attorney, Lisa Moses, tried to get him out of jail time, saying he was equally shocked by his attack.

But Duche called for him to get the maximum sentence of 90 days in prison, telling Douglas County District Judge Theresa Slade: "I was assaulted by a man who took an oath to do no harm.

"I feel he might have killed me if no-one else would have been around."

Ryan, who pleaded guilty to second-degree assault by strangulation and a charge of third-degree assault, was handed a 30-day spell in the county jail.

He also got three years of deferred judgment and probation, must attend anger management classes, undergo mental health treatment and complete 100 hours of community service.

The ex-anaesthesiologist had already relinquished his medical licence.

"You put other patients at risk," Slade told him. "You don't get to act this way, ever."

Duche has also filed a lawsuit against Ryan over the choking incident.

Dogshit cop fails to win his job back

A COP who was fired after feeding a homeless man a dogshit sandwich has failed an appeal.

Matthew Luckhurst, a former bike patrol officer, was sacked in 2016 after an internal investigation found he tried to give the man the vile butty.

Luckhurst, who had been on the force for five years, told a fellow officer that year that he picked up the dog faeces, placed it on bread, and put it inside a container of a "half-eaten meal" provided by a local homeless advocacy group.

Fellow cops reported him to bosses, who said Luckhurst's act was "vile and disgusting."

In 2019, Luckhurst's firing was overturned on a technicality.

But he remained off the job while appealing a separate indefinite suspension over a "prank" in which he shat in a women's loo, failed to flush and smeared "a brown substance" all around.

San Antonio, Texas, city booses have now announced Luckhurst is officially sacked.

Officer sent nude pics to his phone

A POLICE officer sent a woman's nude photos from her mobile phone to his own while responding to a crash, it's claimed.

Albert Kuehne, 36, is charged with two counts of stalking.

Court documents state that Kuehne responded to a motorway crash and detained the 25-year-old woman on suspicion of drunken driving.

When the woman took out her phone, Kuehne demanded that she turn it over, prosecutors said.

When she got home, her boyfriend saw on her laptop that her phone was accessed and nude photos were texted from it to an unknown phone.

When the boyfriend called the number, the person who answered eventually identified himself as Kuehne.

Kuehne of Dayton, Minnesota, is due in court on July 15.

Boffins find giant COCK 'N' BALLS near ancient monument

THOUSANDS of years before the birth of Christ, very strange people were busily working wonders on Salisbury Plain in the south of England.

Their most famous work was Stonehenge – a circle of stone monoliths that has captivated humanity for millennia.

But there are other, less obvious wonders still uncovered in the Wiltshire soil.

Two weeks ago, a team of academics from the universities of St Andrews, Birmingham, Warwick, Bradford, Glasgow and of Wales Trinity Saint David University found a ring of large shafts near Stonehenge which form the largest prehistoric monument that has ever been discovered in Britain.

By SIMON DEAN
simon@sundaysport.co.uk

And last week boffins from the University of West Lancashire found the outline of a giant COCK 'N' BALLS in a field near the Henge.

Significant

Prof Darwin Peterson, head of archaeology at West Lancs, explained: "Primitive people are well known for their depictions of the male phallus – the Cerne Abbas giant is perhaps the most well known.

"But this latest find is very significant and adds a new dimension.

"It is the earliest known depiction of a drop of spunk coming from the Jap's eye – sorry, chap's eye – and as such alters much we thought we knew about the Middle Stone Age."

West Lancs experts studied satellite photos taken during the dry spell earlier this year.

Prof Peterson added: "The ground conditions must have been just right to expose the outline of the vastly ancient form.

"It's all very exciting. Stone Age megacocks do not come along every day, you know."

Shopper fights store mask rule

A DEFIANT shopper FOUGHT his way into a supermarket after he was denied entry for refusing to wear a face mask.

The grey-haired man was seen scuffling with an employee trying to block him from entering.

The older man shoved the worker at a branch of Walmart in Orlando, Florida, and fell to the floor at one point.

A video of the kerfuffle shows the man yelping about "goddamned Washington do-gooders coming down here, telling us what to do…"

The man was eventually persuaded to wear a mask in the store, something that's become mandatory due to a spike in coronavirus cases in Florida recently.

Nude dancer on top of car bit a copper

A WOMAN was nicked after BITING a cop who asked her to stop dancing NAKED on top of a car.

Michelle Tomas (above), 34, was charged with assault of an officer, disorderly conduct and resisting arrest after she'd climbed on top of a stranger's car and started dancing.

She refused to get down when asked by cops so was hauled off.

While she was in the back of the police vehicle, she kicked out a window, tried to run, then bit an officer.

In an arrest report, the officer who was bitten by Tomas said that the bite was bleeding with redness and swelling as well.

It is not known why Tomas was dancing in the buff on top of the car in Nashville, Tennessee, but it is suspected drugs may have been involved.

AS THEY DITCH THIS YEAR'S SHAG-FEST REALITY SHOW

THE VERY BREAST OF

love island

JUST because Love Island has been cancelled this year over the Chinese death plague, there is no reason to suppress your flow of happy willy tears.

We learned last week that the winter version of the ITV2 reality series will not go ahead because of the coronavirus pandemic.

And that came on top of the summer series getting the chop.

But to make up for its absence, the next series will apparently have an extended run beyond the usual eight weeks!

An ITV spokesman confirmed: "Love Island UK will return bigger and better than ever with an extended run in summer 2021."

By JUSTIN DUNN
news@sundaysport.co.uk

The network has instead already started repeating the popular 2018 Australian version of the show.

Meanwhile Laura Whitmore is expected to stay on as the host of the UK series when it returns.

Love Island is one of many shows that has been cancelled or halted production due to COVID-19.

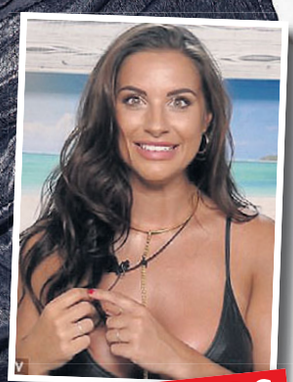
But what about the fabulous ladies who made the show such a hit in the first place?

Well, guess what?

They all right here – and they're baring their fabulous bits for you, too!

OLIVIA BUCKLAND
SERIES 2

ESSEX girl Olivia, 26, ended up marrying fellow second series Love Island star Alex Bowen – which makes you wonder why she shared on her Instagram on February 24: "When I said I like it rough, I meant sex… not the entire relationship."



JESSICA SHEARS
SERIES 3

DEVON-born Jessica, 23, has had a baby with her fellow third series showboat Dom Lever.

She's gorgeous but still has her hang-ups, as she tweeted: "The seats on spin bikes just aren't made for big asses – most uncomfortable things ever."

THE VERY BREAST OF love island

HANNAH ELIZABETH SERIES 1

FIRST series runner-up, sexy Scouser Hannah, 30, has bounced back into the modelling world after recently having a baby with her onetime lover George Andretti – who she is said to have split up with just six days after giving birth.

INDIA REYNOLDS SERIES 5

AN Islander on season five, India, 29, entered the villa on Day 43 and came an impressive third place alongside Ovie Soko just 15 days later.

The pair's on-off relationship has been in the news ever since.

MEGAN BARTON HANSON SERIES 4

SHE found overnight fame as the blonde bombshell who stormed into the Love Island villa during season 4 but Megan, 26, has revealed that show producers didn't cast her when she insisted on dating "girls and guys" – and so applied the following year as a straight woman, and was subsequently signed up.

ZARA HOLLAND
SERIES 2

ZARA, 24, took part in season two – alongside Olivia Buckland – where she went on a date with contestant Alex Bowen, and then had sex with him.

The romp saw her subsequently stripped of her Miss Great Britain title.

CARA DE LA HOYDE
SERIES 2

BRUNETTE Cara, 29, from Essex, shot to fame after winning Love Island 2016 with beau Nathan Massey.

Before that she was a model who posed in a series of adult magazines and worked on X-rated channel Studio 66.

JESSICA HAYES
SERIES 1

SERIES one winner Jessica, 27, took the coveted prize along with fellow islander Max Morley – but once the cameras stopped rolling, they split up after just 40 days.

She gave birth to a baby boy with fiancé Dan last year.

10 things you might not know about PUBS

HOORAY! After three months of being closed – something that even Hitler and the Kaiser failed to do – Britain's pubs are reopening on July 4!

Pubs are as British as fish and chips and statues of historical figures that annoy snowflakes.

But what do we really know about this amazing British institution? Here are some facts you may not have known…

1 THE Romans brought pubs to Britain when they invaded in AD43. Roadside shops selling wine to legionaries were called tabernae. Over the years, they switched to selling local beer and tabernae became 'taverns'.

2 IN 970, Anglo-Saxon king, Edgar, attempted to limit the number of alehouses in any one village and brought in the first law to tackle booze-related trouble.

3 BRITAIN'S oldest pub is said to be Ye Olde Trip to Jerusalem in Nottingham. It dates from 1189 – though the Old Ferryboat in Holywell, north Wales, claims to date to 560.

4 IN 1552, an Act was passed that required innkeepers to have a licence in order to run a pub.

5 IN the 18th century, cheap gin hit Britain. Soon, the average Londoner was drinking 14 gallons of the spirit each year. The government hiked taxes to cut consumption.

6 THE 'saloon bar' originates from the time of the stagecoach. Rich folk who could afford to ride inside the coach were allowed into the saloon bar of coaching inns, while those who sat on the outside of the vehicle were restricted to the public bar.

7 THE pub name The Dog & Duck is named after an old sport in which dogs chased a duck whose wings had been clipped so that its only means of escape was to dive into a pond.

8 ONE-in-four Britons will now meet their future wife or husband in a pub!

9 STALYBRIDGE, near Manchester, has the pubs with the longest and shortest names in the UK. The longest is The Old Thirteenth Cheshire Astley Volunteer Rifleman Corps Inn, the shortest is The Q Inn, both within a few yards of each other on Market Street.

10 THE fear of an empty beer glass is officially known as Zymocenosilicaphobia.

THE VERY BREAST OF love island

KATIE SALMON SERIES 2

KATIE, 24, is a former glamour model and reality star from Liverpool who's best known for coupling up with the late Sophie Gradon on the show's second series. Sophie was originally coupled up with Tom Powell, but he quit the show after his ex, Emma, entered the villa.

LAURA ANDERSON SERIES 4

SCOTTISH beauty Laura, 31, quit her job as an air hostess to appear on the series in 2018, and it certainly paid off! Despite having her heart broken by Wes Nelson, she made it all the way to the final with Paul Knops, finishing as a runner-up behind Jack Fincham and Dani Dyer.

LAURA WHITMORE SERIES 6

IRISH stunna Laura, 35, got the presenting job of a lifetime presenting Love Island, but the appointment was tinged by the sadness of replacing former host, and her pal, Caroline Flack, who took her own life in February.

DAISY MULLER SERIES 1

BRUMMIE model Daisy, 26, was in the first series of Love Island along with pin-up Hannah Elizabeth. She entered the villa on Day 7 as a late entry and coupled up with Jordan, before leaving in 12th place on Day 19.

OLIVIA ATTWOOD
SERIES 3

GUILDFORD girl Olivia, 26, was in the third series but her most recent success was having her boob implants removed.

She said: "I can't wait to be able to wear more clothes now without my boobs falling out, putting people off dinner."

DANIELLE SELLERS
SERIES 3

DANIELLE, 25, a glamour model from East Sussex, made her topless debut in 2016 and said she was "over the moon" to do so.

She confesses to "ordering too much pizza then answering the door in my undies," but adds: "I never have to wait more than 10 mins for my pizza!"

MONTANA BROWN
SERIES 3

HERTFORDSHIRE scorcher Montana, 24, came fifth in the third season in 2017, and it certainly hasn't done her any harm – these days she's on billboards modelling for PrettyLittleThing as their UK brand ambassador, and is crafting a TV presenting career.

DEANO ON SUNDAY

Is griping about a 200-y-o medal helping anybody?

BACK in 1818, the man who designed medals for the British honours system was told by King George III to make a badge for the newly-created Order of St Michael and St George.

The name of the man is lost to history but he sat down and said to himself: "You know, in 202 years' time, a police officer will kill a small-time career criminal by kneeling on his neck. I think my new medal should show that."

Obviously what I've just said is bollocks. It's not true. It cannot be true. It's preposterous to suggest that it's true.

Ah, but we live in 2020. What's true and what's UTTER FKING BOLLOCKS doesn't matter.

"Campaigners" are calling for the redesign of one of Britain's highest honours personally bestowed by the Queen because they claim its badge resembles a depiction of a white angel standing on the neck of a chained black man.

The imagery on the award is of St Michael trampling on Satan. It's a scene from Revelations.

But if you put on a pair of "everything, everywhere is RACIST" glasses the picture is transformed into one of a white man trampling a black man.

Even though the "black man" on the badge has green wings and a green scaly tail.

A petition calling for the medal to be redesigned is on change.org.

Started by Tracy Reeve, it says: "This is a highly offensive image, it is also reminiscent of the recent murder of George Floyd by the white policeman in the same manner presented in this medal. We...are calling for this medal to completely redesigned in a more appropriate way and for an official apology for the offence given."

Tracy, pet, no.

It is an image of the hosts of Heaven defeating the hordes of Hell. It is a Good News story.

Bumi Thomas, a Nigerian British singer, activist and specialist in visual communications, told – who else? – The Guardian newspaper: "It is not a demon; it is a black man in chains with a white, blue-eyed figure standing on his neck. It is literally what happened to George Floyd and what has been happening to black people for centuries."

Next time I want a "specialist in visual communications" I won't be calling Bumi Thomas because he clearly talks rot.

There is REAL racism out there. There are bad people who really think that ethnic minorities are second class citizens.

They – the real bad guys – are getting a free ride while the soppy Guardian-reading classes are chasing shadows, toppling statues and seeing non-existent racism.

These "campaigners" need to consider if their gripes about 200-year-old images on medals are helping anything or anybody.

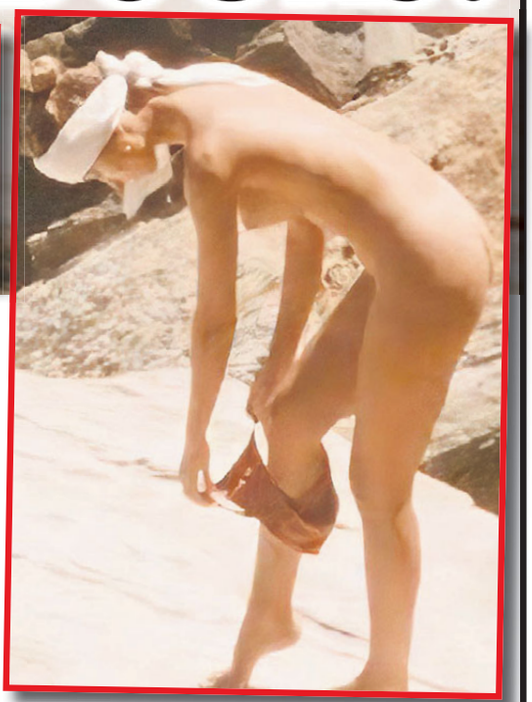
BABE WHO PLAYED SCOTT AND CHARLENE'S DAUGHTER IN AUSSIE SOAP IN NAKED SNAPS

MORE THAN JUST GOOD FRIENDS: Justin and Kylie

WAHEY-BOURS!

BLOODY ELL: Sarah in soap – and in the altogether



By SIMON DEAN

simon@sundaysport.co.uk

IF you haven't watched Neighbours for a few years, here's some news that will make you feel old...

Remember Scott and Charlene, played by real-life lovers Jason Donovan and Kylie Minogue?

Well, in soapland, Scott and Charlene had a baby and that baby is now all grown up.

And my, hasn't she grown!

Sarah Ellen – who played Scott and Charlene's daughter Madison in the soap back in 2016 – risked an Instagram ban on Thursday when she stripped down for a collection of artistic nude pictures.

The 23-year-old made the most of the sunshine by climbing over rocks in just a skimpy G-string, which she subsequently removed.

To show off her minge!

Despite being in violation of Instagram's rules on nudity, the actress stared straight into the camera in one topless image.

"Natural state," she captioned the tasteful photos, which delighted her followers.

But not all netizens were happy.

One said: "It only seems like five minutes ago that Scott and Charlene got married.

"Welcome as these pics of Sarah are, they're reminding me that I'm hurtling towards the drooling maw of the grave..."

Sex-mad monkeys take over city

A CITY has plunged into real-life Planet of the Apes-style hell thanks to aggressive sex-crazed monkeys, who have begun to invade buildings and terrorise neighbourhoods.

Troops of Lopburi macaques in Thailand have become increasingly emboldened by the lack of tourists in the area due to the coronavirus pandemic.

With fewer people feeding them fruits they are said to have become angry and agitated at the lack of food, which has led to a surge in grub-grabbing attacks on humans.

Now residents in the central Thai city say the situation has become so bad they have resorted to either fleeing their homes, not going out and thus creating monkey 'no-go zones'.

Government vet Supakarn Kaewchot said: "They're so used to having tourists feed them and the city provides no space for them to fend for themselves.

"With the tourists gone, they've been more aggressive, fighting humans for food to survive."

A local said: "It's like Planet of the Apes – the monkeys are winning!"

PEACE TAKERS: Couple romp in United Nations vehicle

UNITED LAY-TIONS!

Peacekeeper caught balls-deep in UN car

By BRAD CHADWICK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

THE United Nations has launched a probe after one of its peacekeepers was filmed balls deep in a bird in an official vehicle.

The pair were caught rutting in a distinctive UN 4x4 in Tel Aviv, Israel, and the video has caused a storm for the beleaguered organisation.

The clip was shot from a building situated on a busy roadside and shows a man sitting on the back seat of the car with a woman in a red dress straddling him.

While the driver was not visible in the clip, another man was seen sitting in the front seat.

Reportedly, the car is registered to the United Nations Truce Supervision Organisation (UNTSO).

The peacekeepers are in the region to try and stop Israelis and Palestinians killing each other too much.

The UN has a strict policy against sexual misconduct and exploitation, and also bans paying for sex, but whether the two people were involved in consensual sex or if it involved payment is not clear.

UN spokesman Stéphane Dujarric said that the video had "shocked and deeply disturbed" the UN.

He said: "The behaviour seen in it is abhorrent and goes against everything we stand for and have been working to achieve in terms of fighting sexual misconduct by UN staff."

The investigation is being conducted by the Office of Internal Oversight that looks over matters of misconduct, fraud and corruption.

The UN has been caught in sex scandals before, notably when randy peacekeepers were caught having sex with vulnerable women in Haiti.

MEET THE GHOST OF BLUE BELL HILL

By NEIL GOODWIN
news@sundaysport.co.uk

IT'S the classic urban legend: a motorist hits a pedestrian walking in the middle of a lonely road in the dead of night.

But when the incident is reported to the police no 'victim' can be found and there's not a mark on the car.

In other words, they've driven straight into a highway PHANTOM.

This is a story repeated around the world, circulated as if it's true, with little evidence to back it up.

There is, however, a compelling case right here in Britain that has seen almost 50 named witnesses come forward to tell the tale.

And the spirit that wanders the tarmac of Blue Bell Hill is still driving fear into those behind the wheel to this day...

If you drive across the North Downs of Kent between Maidstone and Chatham, on the A229, you'll eventually reach a high point and see an exposed chalk cliff.

If you're on your own, motoring late at night, it's a not a place that locals recommend you linger.

VICTIMS: Judith, (top left) bride-to-be Suzanne (above) and Patricia

Baffling

Because it's at this spot where the ghost of a young woman has been terrifying motorists and baffling police since 1974.

But you have to go back some 10 years before that to find the real source of the haunting – to a terrible tragedy that lies at the heart of the case.

On November 19, 1965, two cars smashed into each other on Blue Bell Hill.

A MK1 Ford Cortina with four young women inside – Suzanne Browne, 24, Judith Lingham, 22, Patricia Ferguson, 23, and Gillian Burchett, 23.

Judith died instantly, Patricia succumbed to her injuries an hour later, while Suzanne – who had been driving – fought for her life in hospital as her husband-to-be Brian Wetton kept a bedside vigil.

She sadly slipped away the following day – the day she and Brian were due to marry.

Guests, unaware of the accident which had occurred the previous evening, turned up for the midday wedding only to be informed of the terrible news.

Meanwhile, Gillian was in hospital a further four months before she could to tell police Suzanne had lost control of her vehicle on a treacherous bend.

Now, researchers believe Australian Suzanne has never left Blue Bell Hill.

Fast forward to July 13, 1974, and 35-year-old bricklayer Maurice Goodenough rushes into Rochester Police Station claiming he's just knocked down a young woman in her mid-20s near Blue Bell Hill.

The official statement he gave to officers reads: "The girl just walked out in front of me from the edge of the road. My car hit her with one hell of a bang."

Ghoulish

Not wishing to move the lady he'd just mowed down, he left her by the side of the road and frantically drove off for help.

But when the police and ambulance crews arrived there was no trace of her.

A police tracker dog was brought out, but no scent, no blood, and no trace of the accident was found.

Worried the woman had been abducted by some ghoulish fiend, Kent Police even put out a statement saying: "We would appeal to any parent whose daughter has some unexplained injuries, like a bump to the head, to contact us."

No-one ever did. And no body was ever recovered.

For the next 20 years police faced a string of similar calls – with motorists claiming to have struck a woman wearing white, only for her to then disappear into the ether.

In 1992 Blue Bell Hill was once again at the centre of a media flap.

Ian Sharpe, a coach driver aged 54, had been driving to Maidstone when he saw a woman step out into the road in front of him, eyes locked on his

REAL LIFE X-FILES

'She was solid – as real as you and I'

DRIVEN MAD: Ghostly woman has been seen on road near Blue Bell Hill in a grim stare, before disappearing beneath his bonnet.

He slammed on the brakes – and feared the worst.

Scared

Ian said: "I honestly thought I'd killed her. You can't imagine how it felt. I was scared to look underneath. But I knelt down and looked straight through – and there was nothing there."

Unable to find a telephone box, he again went to the nearest police station, where officers – now fearing they were about to embark on another wild goose chase – failed to find any evidence of a fatal impact.

Shaken Ian later recalled: "At the time I went to the police station, I thought I'd knocked down a woman.

"I don't believe in – I have never believed in – ghosts.

"She was a normal woman – roundish face, shoulder length hair, and her eyes… she had big eyes, really big eyes."

PC Roger Ginn at the time reported: "Once we were satisfied there was no sign of an accident – no damage to his car for a start, and particularly in view of where it had occurred – we just had to write it off as yet another sighting of the Blue Bell Hill ghost."

This is possibly the only example of a police logbook where "probable ghost" has been recorded.

And exactly two weeks later, it all happened again – this time to motorist Chris Dawkins, 19, who was so shaken by his experience that police were in no doubt about the veracity of his claims.

He'd said: "When I hit her it was as if the ground moved apart and she went under the car.

"I thought I'd killed her.

"She was solid – as real as you and I."

Author and expert on the case, Sean Tudor, has pointed out that most of the ghost's victims are lone males.

Spectral

Is the spectral bride still pining for a husband to sweep her off her feet?

Tudor, having studied countless witness testimonies for his book The Ghost(s) of Blue Bell Hill, is in no doubt that it is something spooky.

He says: "After dozens of similar accounts collected over the years from sincere, reliable witnesses, they certainly suggest that something strange is going on at Blue Bell Hill."

'KILLER DRIVERS': Chris Dawkins and Ian Sharp

BRITAIN'S OTHER HAUNTED ROADS:

The A3, Surrey

IN December 2002 Surrey Police investigated reports of a car seen swerving off the A3 near Burpham in Surrey.

They did indeed find a vehicle in a ditch containing the remains of a driver – but the motorist had perished FIVE MONTHS previously, leading to speculation the sighting had been a ghostly re-enactment of the prang that killed him.

Sergeant Russ Greenhouse, of Surrey Police, said: "The car was discovered as a result of a report from members of the public who thought they saw a car's headlights veering off the road.

"The officers could not identify that collision, but they had the presence of mind to search on foot."

The A616, Sheffield

THIS stretch of tarmac has been dubbed 'The Killer Road'.

It's an accident blackspot that has claimed dozens of fatalities.

In 1989, two security guards tasked with keeping watch over building materials claimed they saw a group of children dancing beneath a pylon in the early hours.

Others have seen a monk staring blankly out towards the valley.

And some unlucky souls even told officers at nearby Deepcar Police Station how a ghostly apparition had suddenly appeared in their passenger seat…

The A1, North Yorkshire

THE A1 runs the length of England into Scotland, linking Edinburgh with London.

The northern sections near York were also an ancient thoroughfare created by the Romans during the period from AD 43 to AD 410.

And motorists in North Yorkshire regularly report seeing Roman Centurians still trudging along the historic cobbles – thousands of years after their deaths.

Jess: I'd love a weekend away

By WENDY THOMAS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

JUICY Jess Kingham is on the hunt for a fella to whisk her away for a dirty weekend – the moment hotels reopen!

Glamour babe Jess, 26, said she would love to be surprised with a trip to a hotel when lockdown is fully over, to spend two days getting steamy with a lucky bloke.

Jess, a tasty 32F, said she'd even dress up for it because she loves to flaunt her curves in stockings.

Jess, from Camberley in Surrey, added: "I love to put on a set of nice lingerie and a pair of killer high heels.

"Dressing up for nookie definitely makes it more passionate. My top outfit would be stockings, a lacy bra and black stilettos."

My perfect Sunday...

Katie Thornton, 26, 32GG, from Burnley

I'M UP FOR FOOTIE AND A FEW PINTS!

THERE is never any doubt as to how Lancashire lovely Katie Thornton loves to spend her perfect Sunday – watching her beloved Burnley FC!

The megaboobed stunna says that going to see the Clarets play at their Turf Moor home ground is something she's been doing since she was a kid.

And she still gets a thrill from it.

Katie said: "If Burnley are playing someone like Blackburn then the atmosphere is electric.

"It can be a bit cold but you soon warm up with all the shouting, singing and cheering.

"And the half time pies at Turf Moor are second to none.

"Then after the match, you go to a pub and have a few pints and talk about the game. With a bit of luck, someone will have a copy of Sunday Sport with them.

"If I'm in it that week, I won't pay for a pint all afternoon!"

LEGENDS OF PORN

PART 113 EMILY WILLIS

EMILY Willis was born on December 29, 1998, in Argentina.

When she was seven, her mother married and they moved to St. George, Nevada, where she grew up.

She has pert 32A boobs and one of the finest little trumpers in all of pornoland.

Emily lost her virginity when she was 16, with her first love, and masturbates every single day – two times at least!

Before she started her porn career, she lived in San Diego and worked in door-to-door sales.

By PENNY MARSHALL
news@sundaysport.co.uk

On Tinder she met the owner of the Girls Do Porn website, and she started dating him, before he suggested she make some scenes with him, back in October 2017.

Emily's official porn career started in February 2018.

She pops up in many different categories of hardcore movies – facial, swallow, interracial, creampie, anal – but when guys pop, she prefers them doing it on her pretty face.

It could be said that facial is her chosen fetish.

PUB TALK

BEFORE the lockdown closed their doors, the pub was a great place to meet old mates, relax and have a laugh over a couple of drinks.

In happier times, our reporters visited British boozers up and down the country to ask babes all about their sex lives.

Thankfully, we got a few interviews "stockpiled" before all the pubs got shut.

In today's feature, we speak to two beauties from Stockport...

WORST-EVER SEX

JULIA: Where do I start?
MARY: At the beginning – and don't leave any details out.
JULIA: It was with a guy a couple of years ago. Some girls say size doesn't make any difference but sometimes it really does. And on this occasion, let me tell you, it mattered a lot.
MARY: Go on.
JULIA: He was really small but worse than that, he was really useless in bed as well. Not a good combination.

He was just like a machine gun – bang, bang, bang, bang, bang. He wasn't exactly careful and considerate.

He hadn't bothered with any foreplay, just jabbed about and stuck it in and banged away for about a minute before coming. I'd barely even got warmed up before he was sliding off me.
MARY: I really hate it when that happens.
JULIA: If you have genuine feeling for a person, then it doesn't matter but this time it did, because I didn't, if you understand what I'm saying.
MARY: Mine was when I had a one-night stand with a boy I met in a club.

In the morning he just left me and his mate woke me up and told me that I had to get out.

I was in a flap and couldn't find my bra so I had to leave it. Then, when I went outside, I didn't know where I was so I had to ask this woman in the street who looked me up and down as if I was a right slut.

I felt really embarrassed because I felt like one at the time. The sex really wasn't worth it.

BEST-EVER SEX

JULIA: I think it is different for girls because the best sex I have had was when emotions were involved.

It was on Valentine's Day and my boyfriend pretended he'd forgotten.
MARY: He probably had.
JULIA: No, he hadn't. Let me finish the story.

He told me he had to go to see a friend who was at a hotel and asked me to go with him. I didn't want to go and moaned the whole way there.

We got to the hotel and went up to the room. He told me to wait outside as he'd only be a couple of minutes. I was worried he might be doing a drug deal, or something shady like that.

A minute later heard him call and he told me come in.

I was wonderfully surprised to hear there was soft romantic music playing and that he'd laid out chocolates and flowers on the bed.

We made good use of the chocolate and made love nearly all night.
MARY: So it wasn't just the chocolates and flowers, it was the sex as well?
JULIA: Yeah, I suppose it was.
MARY: Let's just say mine was when I was under the influence – and I don't mean alcohol. It was all a bit of a blur really but what I remember of it was fantastic.

We just got home and ripped each other's clothes off. It was passionate, raw sex. Very satisfying. Our inhibitions had gone so it was great.

FANTASIES

JULIA: I want to be controlled.
MARY: Robbie Williams is mine, but he'd have to be covered in chocolate. I'd eat it off him and then have sex with him.

He is my ideal man. He is cheeky, sexy and a little bit hairy. I don't need to say any more.
JULIA: Mine is to have a threesome. It would involve me, a guy and a girl. And the element of surprise would be good too. Not knowing you were going to have group sex and then being told it was to happen there and then. I want to be told what to do and when to do it. I would have to experiment with both the lad and the girl. It is my fantasy, after all.

> 'He tickled me there then pushed his finger in a little way – I came like a train soon after!'

WILLY SIZE

JULIA: It does sometimes. Size can be made up for by decent foreplay.

A guy should be gentle and caress a girl. He shouldn't touch her clitoris too hard as it's not nice or a turn-on.

And they shouldn't just stick it in either.
MARY: I'm not fussy. I don't mind whether it's big or small – they are all good to me.

WOULD YOU HAVE A THREESOME?

JULIA: Of course I would, that's my fantasy. I think everyone should try it at least once. Like I said earlier, I think it would have to be me and another girl with a boy. I don't think I'd like it with two guys as I might be a little bit intimidated.
MARY: I would like to have a threesome. I don't think it would matter whether it was with another girl or two boys. I would never have a threesome with a friend though.
JULIA: Why not?
MARY: Because they are not as sexy as me, would not be able to compete and that wouldn't be fair.
JULIA: Thanks a lot!

ANAL SEX

MARY: I have never had it but I am willing to try it. I've had a sort of taste of what it might be like a few times during really hot sex – the guy has pulled my bum cheeks apart and tickle me there and pushed a finger in a little way. It felt odd at first but I came like a train soon afterwards.

Oddly, though, no-one's asked me if I want to go the whole way yet. I really wish they would!
JULIA: Be prepared for it, is my advice. Keep a top lubricant in your bag ready for when you do it – I've found Wet Platinum is the best and safest but do your own research if you like.

Make sure he's hard as a rock and lubed-up as well – and take it slow. When you get the hang of it you'll be sticking things up your hole front as well. It's awesome!

SPIT OR SWALLOW?

MARY: I would say spit, but that's just me because I've never liked the consistency or taste of semen. Having said that, when I'm with a long-term boyfriend and really sexed-up, I swallow the lot – and want more!
JULIA: When I'm giving a blowjob I always check before I pull away because he could get you in the face and get it in your eye and that is a messy bad experience. I try not to have to spit by not getting it in my mouth in the first place.
MARY: Sperm is supposed to be good for your skin, remember.

FIRST TIME

MARY: Mine was really nice because I had known the boy for ages. We had planned it for a while and I was ready. The sex didn't last long and it was OK. Is anyone's first time really good?
JULIA: I think most guys think differently to girls about their first time.
MARY: They are just eager to get that first notch on the bedpost.
JULIA: My first time was a bit painful and not enjoyable. It was just too tight – and he spent about half-an-hour trying to get the condom on. But, for me, it was still worth the wait.

SEX OUTDOORS

JULIA: I'm a bit boring really. The only place I have had sex outside was on a park bench.We were walking home from the pub and fancied a quickie. There was the bench and off we went.

It was exciting knowing someone could catch us. The danger and the thrill made it so much better.
MARY: I've had sex in a children's playground under the climbing frame.
JULIA: I hope there weren't any kids about.
MARY: No, it was at night. It was a bit cold, but we soon warmed up! Like you, I loved the thought of us being caught!

25 YEARS OF FILTH

LAID BARE: See the prettiest girls in the filthiest scenes

THIS July, porn fans can enjoy looking back at the last two-and-a-half decades of the nation's favourite porno channel, as Television X celebrates it's 25th ANNIVERSARY!

They've searched back through their archive of thousands of hours worth of filth, to bring you some forgotten gems and all-time classic skin flicks.

In the late 90s they had old favourite Cock Crazy on the TVX screens for the first time, as well as the Strap-o-Gram Girls feature in their specials.

Other flashback favourites include Butt Monkey, Superdick and the millennium ending Extreme Close Up: Christmas Present.

Our pick of filth has to be TVX legends Shagnasty & Muttley, where the dirty gits travel Britain to find the filthiest fks UK streets have to offer and pick up babes in crazy situations.

With all the filth that TVX has put on your screens over the past 25 years, we want to hear YOUR favourite Brit scenes from Television X.

Follow TVX on Twitter and Instagram @TVXMole and let us know which saucy scenes have sent you wild and which girls – new or old – have kept you turned on over the years.

If you've missed out on British babes, it's never too late – subscribe to Television X tonight and take advantage of this incredible offer.

Call 0333 030 6969 or by visiting televisionx.com

And you can watch all the HARDCORE box sets of TVX titles on Zaucey.com

Don't forget to also follow Television X on Twitter and Instagram @TVXMole

BOOBS ON THE BOX

BRITAIN'S ONLY NAKED TV GUIDE

with SIMON DEAN

TODAY

Horror Channel, 12.50am, The Sand – A CHEEKY Nikki Leigh flashes her left breast for the guy holding the camera at two minutes in.

TOMORROW

Film4, 9pm, The Inbetweeners Movie – LAURA Haddock strips down to her skimpy skivvies on the beach at one hour two mins. No matter that the boobs you see actually belong to a body double.

TUESDAY

ITV4, 10.10pm, On Deadly Ground – CARLOTTA Chang and her naked knockers writhe around in semi slo-mo at 46 mins while an old woman appears and Steven Seagal prays during a hazy dream sequence.

WEDNESDAY

Horror Channel, 12.45am, All Cheerleaders Die – REANIN Johannink strips down for some dork in a stall at 56 mins, and though the close-up of her breasts may be those of a body double, we do get to see Reanin's rack from the side regardless!

THURSDAY

Horror Channel, 11.05pm, Rollerball – NICE set of bobos from Kata Dodo at 27 mins, cheerfully undressed in a locker room in this 2002 remake of the classic movie.

FRIDAY

Film4, 1.05am, The Survivalist – MIA Goth strips off her clothes at 27 mins, revealing her breasts as she washes up and lets a rugged guy sex her up!

TODAY

TOMORROW

Italy's Frontline: A Doctor's Diary – BBC2, 9pm

GRIPPING Documentary featuring an unprecedented and intimate insight into three months of life on the COVID-19 frontline in Italy with A&E doctor Francesca Mangiatordi.

In the early days of the outbreak, the hospital is overflowing and Francesca works gruelling 12-hour shifts caring for those who have been most affected.

Due to a lack of life-saving equipment she faces the traumatising task of prioritising which lives to try to save.

At home, Francesca is fearful of infecting her husband, who suffers from a respiratory condition, and she hasn't touched him – or her children – for more than a month.

Narrated by Florence Pugh.

Real lives at work solving death

Catching a Killer – C4, 10.05pm

DOCUMENTARY about Thames Valley Police's investigation into the disappearance of 31-year-old mother-of-three Natalie Hemming on May 1, 2016.

The programme has extraordinary access to the officers as they try to work out whether Natalie is alive or dead, and to her family and friends, struggling with the situation that is unfolding around them.

An arrest is eventually made as the case reaches its heartbreaking conclusion.

Match of the Day Live: The FA Cup Newcastle United v Manchester City – BBC1, 6.10pm

GARY Lineker presents all the action from the sixth-round tie at St James' Park (kick-off 6.30pm).

This is Newcastle's first appearance at this stage in 14 years, but they are unbeaten in their last two matches against the Citizens here in the Premier League, drawing 2-2 this season and prevailing 2-1 last term.

However, it remains to be seen how they will fare against Pep Guardiola's cup holders without the backing of their vociferous home support.

David Bowie at Glastonbury 2000 – BBC2, 9.30pm

HIGHLIGHTS of the singer's headline set on the Pyramid Stage that closed the festival on Sunday June 25, 2000, regarded as one of his greatest live performances since the 1970s.

This re-edited version includes previously unbroadcast performances of hits including Ashes to Ashes, Starman and Let's Dance.

The British Soap Awards Celebrate 21 Years – ITV, 9pm

PHILLIP Schofield (so brave) hosts this celebration of the only TV awards ceremony dedicated entirely to soap as it hits its 21st anniversary.

He looks back at some of the most memorable winners, including the soap icons who have scooped the outstanding achievement award, the top issue-led storylines, great scenes and the big laughs.

He also looks at some of the soap double acts, such as Roy and Hayley, Kat and Alfie – not forgetting the super villains, like Corrie's 'Norman Bates with a briefcase' Richard Hillman and EastEnders' evil bride Janine Butcher.

In other words, a repeat.

TUESDAY

Celebrity Gogglebox – C4, 9pm

DENISE Van Outen and her partner Eddie, Mo Gilligan and Babatunde Aleshe, Nick Grimshaw and his niece Liv, Joe Swash and Stacey Solomon, Zoe Ball and her son Woody Cook, Martin Kemp and son Roman Kemp, Maureen Lipman and Gyles Brandreth, Johnny Vegas and his PA Bev, Shaun Ryder and Bez, Emilia Fox and Joanna David, Eamonn Holmes and Ruth Langsford, and Laura Whitmore and Iain Stirling offer sharp, insightful, funny and sometimes emotional critiques of popular and topical TV shows, sparking debate and giving viewers the chance to share those "we said that" moments.

Live at the Apollo – BBC1, 10pm

RT's Sarah Millican presents the first in a new series (OK, it's a repeat) of this near-the-knuckle stand-up show.

She gets off to a rollicking start with a breathtaking and unrepeatable observation about a certain irresistible feeling that comes over her when she's on the phone to her mother.

Also on a sturdy opening-night bill are Joe Lycett, who's very funny about the implacable logic of parking enforcement personnel, and a highly energetic Russell Kane, who has some sport with Australians in the audi-

DON'T MISS THIS!!!

Touching the Void – C4, Thursday, 10pm

DIRECTOR Kevin Macdonald's acclaimed, hugely powerful documentary recreating the terrifying struggle for survival faced by mountaineers Joe Simpson and Simon Yates, who braved the Peruvian Andes.

During the descent, one of the men fell, breaking his leg and forcing his friend to leave him – but remarkably he beat all the odds to survive.

The story is told in the climbers' own words and features many dramatised reconstructions of their ordeal.

Utterly gripping.

SUNDAY Sport SEXY BACK END!

SIENNA: I LOVE SEX IN KINKY PLACES...

By WENDY THOMAS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

SEXY Sienna Brown has revealed she has an X-rated BUCKET LIST of kinky places she'd love to BONK in!

The busty glamour babe, who boasts a 34EE rack, has ticked off quite a few already – including in a library and on a Ferris wheel.

The 24-year-old, from Brighton, gets a thrill from spontaneous, risky sex, where she could get caught out.

She said: "I've got down and dirty in some crazy places – me and my ex once got naughty on a Ferris wheel on holiday in Spain!

"Shagging in a library was one I've always wanted to tick off, too.

"I genuinely had to look something up in the quiet reference area at the back and then the bloke I was with at the time gave me a cheeky look and we got carried away. It was so hard to stay quiet!"

BRANDY'S GAGGING FOR A BIT OF PORK!

By WENDY THOMAS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

BUSTY Brandy Brewer has been dreaming about a cold pint since March and can't wait until July 4.

The 32-year-old, from Camden, said: "I've got a taste for real ale in the past few years.

"I used to love going to micro pubs and sampling new brews, so I can't wait for the pubs to reopen and get a nice draught ale."

But the 32E beauty isn't just obsessed with booze – she also loves pork scratchings, adding: "I am totally addicted!

"I have a rule that I only eat them when I'm in the pub, otherwise I'd end up getting too fat to model."

VERONICA CAN'T STOP TOUCHING HERSELF!

By WENDY THOMAS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

SEXY Veronica Vanoza is worried about the lockdown easing...

Not because she's scared of catching COVID-19 but because she won't have time to pleasure herself seven-times-a-day!

The 32D beauty, who is originally from Czechia but now lives in Bournemouth, is concerned she has become addicted to fingering herself over the last three months and doesn't know how she's going to break the habit.

Veronica, 31, said: "For the last three months I have been touching myself, almost constantly. It's been like seven or eight-times-a-day!

"I have had nothing else to do and now I am plunging my fingers into my pussy and rubbing my clit all the time.

"But if I have to start going out and about again, when will I find time for all my masturbating?"

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Dani,

MY mum is a fking embarrassment. Whenever my mates come round she's forever trying to hit on them.

I don't think it'd be so bad but she's a really good-looking woman and I don't want to see her wearing low-cut tops that show off the brown around her nipple.

My pals come to see me just to get a gawp at her. Last week she was in the back garden sunbathing topless and she was up and down serving ice-cold juice and whenever she came back from the fridge her nips were rock hard.

I know it's only a matter of time before I walk in on her getting shafted and I shouldn't be having to think thoughts like that.

What can I do to make her grow up?

JF, email

Dani says...
YOU have to realise your mum is a woman and she has her needs.

Dear Dani,

FROM the day my husband and I moved into this area a few months ago, we have found the people to be very friendly.

But we didn't realise quite how friendly our neighbours were until the girl in the next flat had what she called a "cosy little chat" with me, which actually turned to our sex lives and what turned us on.

Anyway, one evening we tapped on her door and, with a bottle of wine in hand, were invited in. It didn't take long before I was sucking off her fella, who had a long cock.

Meanwhile, my husband was buried up to the bollocks in the fanny of the blonde.

Now they want us to go to a swingers' club with them. I'm not so sure, though.

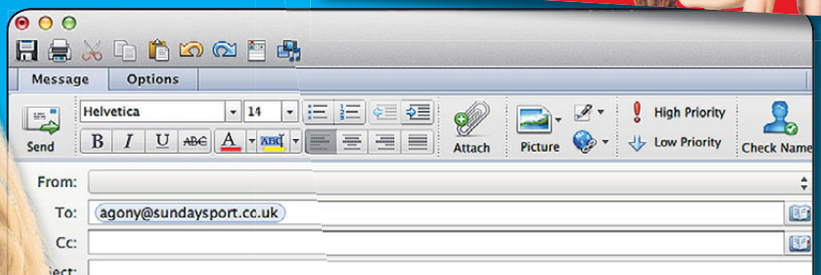
Sunday Sport SEXY BACK END!



Older and bolder nymphos satisfy my sexual desires

Dear Dani,

WHAT people say about older women is true – they really do know what they're doing in bed.

And, not to put too fine a point on it, they're usually pretty up for a shag too.

I'm 24 but I've always gone for older ladies and until very recently was in a relationship with a 52-year-old divorced mum, who was a beast in bed.

Since we split up I've got the horn for much older tarty-looking sorts.

Last week in a club I was eyeing up a couple of tasty-looking women in their late 40s.

I got them up dancing and later took them back to my place for more drinks.

It wasn't long before we were all naked in my bed. At first I was just getting it on with one of them and thought the other lying by her side wasn't very interested in joining in.

But I couldn't have been more wrong, because after a while I felt her hand cup my balls as I slammed into her pal from behind.

From there, she managed to get them in her mouth and roll her tongue around them for a while.

After that I hoisted her up, in the standing position, and banged her up against the wall.

Then the two of them put on a bit of a lesbo show for me. After necking and fondling each other's massive tits, they had their fingers working furiously on one another's love-holes.

That got me going again and I fked each of them in turn.

Sizzling

Before we fell asleep I remember one of them crouching over the other's face while I wanked all over them.

In the morning they made me a sizzling full English breakfast and treated me like a king.

I can't imagine that happening with a lass my own age – can you? None of them can be arsed cooking these days.

I see these two goers regularly and it's always top shagging. They say they want to share me and are asking me not to see any other women.

But I'm not quite sure about the whole setup. What do you think?

DG, Cleveland

Dani says...

THEY want a sex slave. Don't let them chain you up.

Dear Dani,

I'M a 21-year-old lad and for the last six months I've been working at a gym where the cleaner is 40 and married with three kids, but has still got a great body.

A few weeks back she was cleaning the reception desk and I could see her G-string poking out of her jeans. She caught me having a glimpse and led me to the toilets.

She locked the door, stripped naked and then sucked my throbbing cock until I exploded all over her face. I then bent her over the toilet and boned her.

Now I feel a bit guilty because she's married. What do you think?

CS, email

Dani says...

GET it while you can. She certainly won't be feeling any guilt.

Looks like Mr Grumpy needs a blowjob!

SUNDAY Sport SEXY BACK END!

A birdie like Sheila is worth two in the bush!

By WENDY THOMAS news@sundaysport.co.uk

STUNNING Sheila Grant has been experimenting with growing a big old hairy BUSH since lockdown began in Britain.

The 36E beauty, from Newcastle, thought there was no better time for her to stop shaving her fanny and is loving having a luscious ladygarden.

Sheila, 33, said: "I thought I would give it a go and I absolutely love it.

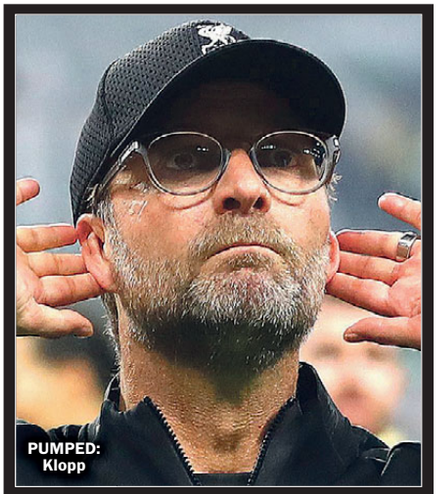
Revelation

"It's a revelation really. I think it looks really sexy, too.

"It's especially horny when I am getting shagged hard and fast and I look down to see a huge, stiff cock pounding into me.

"Somehow it makes me feel more womanly and that's extra horny!"

OUR FOOTY NEWS ALWAYS SCORES!



PUMPED: Klopp

Kop rivals in a ton of trouble booms Klopp

JURGEN Klopp says he'd love his champions to beat City's Premier League points target of 100.

But the German admits it's going to be tough with games coming thick and fast. The Anfield giants ended 30 years of hurt when finally clinching the title this week.

It took a City defeat at Chelsea to do it and now Klopp wants to make more history.

He said: "Getting that kind of points tally sounds pretty nice to me. I'm not sure it's possible because six of the remaining seven games we play in a very short period of time. It's every three days."

It has been a long wait to top the table — made even longer by the coronavirus lockdown.

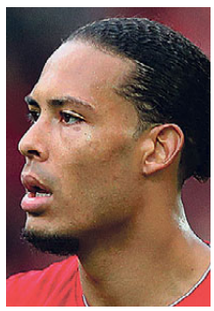
But Klopp says he always believed his team would get there.

He added: "Not doubts, but I didn't know that it will happen because the other teams are so good.

"You have to change each year, bring new things, that's how it is. A season is really long, you need to be lucky in some moments, especially with injuries, so you can never be sure but I knew we will become a really good football team.

"The secret to this group is the mix: we have a lot of really good players, world-class players but other clubs have world-class players.

"The consistency comes from the mix of determination and buying into the idea, attitude, personality, character and that is what makes this group so special.



TALISMAN: Van Dijk

"They are already confident because they won some stuff but they are still humble and if we stay humble we have a good chance to be successful in the future as well."

And Klopp is warning his rivals that Liverpool don't intend to stop on 19 titles.

He boomed: "The last 13 months were pretty special for us, that's absolutely true," he said.

"I'd like to involve the year before that because it was an incredible football time in my life, winning so many points was absolutely exceptional.

"I — and we — will not stop, that's it. We will not stop, we will stay focused and we see the opportunity.

"But 'Will not stop' does not mean we will win everything. I can't promise we will win something but we will try everything to improve."

SO RELAXED: Rodgers shares a joke with Marc Albrighton

YOU CAN'T HUNT DOWN MY FOXES

Rodgers confident of Champions League spot

BRENDAN Rodgers says he's not looking over his shoulder in the Champions League race.

By PAUL THOMAS

Leicester are having a good season under the Northern Irishman and sit in third place.

With Manchester City facing a ban from European competition, fifth should be good enough for a seat at the top table.

It has been a frustrating time for the Foxes since football restarted with two Premier League draws against struggling Watford and Brighton.

Thanks to Chelsea seeing off City at Stamford Bridge, they have closed the gap to Leicester down to five points.

Manchester United and Wolves are also waiting in the wings as things start to get tight near the top. But Rodgers insists all is well at the King Power and his team can hold their position.

He said: "Those teams have picked up results since they've come back and we've had two draws, so not ideal.

"But whatever way you want to spin it, we are in the position through ourselves. We are third in the league, in a great position.

"We have shown right up until 31 games we are worthy of being where we are.

'All the teams we have yet to play in the league we have beaten, apart from Manchester United.

'We will look to go into these games and get back to our level of performance, get that intensity back.

"We've had a bit of that inconsistency you get with young players but it doesn't stop us pushing to finish as high as we can.

"We can only worry about ourselves. Those teams are obviously expected to be above us but we are where we are on merit and we will look to finish the job off."

Before bossing Leicester, Rodgers was in charge of Liverpool and was one infamous Steven Gerrard slip away from winning the title six years ago.

Fitting

Now the Anfield men have finally ended their three-decade wait for glory and the Foxes gaffer is delighted for his old side.

He said: "They have been consistently the best team and to get the title after such a long wait, I am delighted for all the supporters.

"It is very fitting as they have been brilliant this year. They have looked like a machine.

"The team have so much quality with professional players who play at the highest level

"I texted Jurgen Klopp and Jordan Henderson who I know very well. I am delighted for them all.

"I also pleased for the ownership who came into football new and each year they have learned about the game and are fantastic owners who deserve that success."

Rodgers thinks selling Philippe Coutinho was the key moment for the Reds. They pocketed £142m from Barcelona for the Brazilian back in 2018.

He said: "The money they gained from Philippe has enabled them to buy Van Dijk, Alisson and Fabinho — three players who have transformed the team."

Penalties on menu as Blades get Sharp

GOAL THREAT: Billy Sharp

THREE FA Cup quarter-finals today and we begin at Bramall Lane where Arsenal are the visitors.

The Gunners have lifted the trophy a record 13 times in the past one more than Manchester United and will be confident of beating a Sheffield United side who have lost back-to-back league games 3-0 and failed to score in their three league games for the first time in almost seven years.

They have only had three attempts at goal in those games but their performances will have hurt Blades boss Chris Wilder and I feel they will come out fighting against Arsenal who picked up a much-needed three points at St Mary's midweek.

Appeal

Arsenal began the weekend 9/1 with Unibet to win the Cup with Sheffield United 25/1 at bet365.

The Gunners are 6/4 to win the tie in 90 minutes with Unibet but I feel this is going right down to the wire and it would not surprise me if it went to extra time or penalties for the winner to be known.

Under 2.5 goals is a best priced 5/6 and that is the recommendation although a draw also makes plenty of appeal at 12/5 with Boylesports.

In the middle game Leicester entertain Chelsea in what promises to be the tie of the round.

CharlieMcCann.co.uk
Tips, News and Betting Offers

The Foxes looked devoid of ideas against Brighton midweek, but Chelsea had a very tough game against former champions Manchester City, and this is another game which is very tough to call.

Chelsea are 8/1 to win the competition with Leicester – whose priority is, arguably, to hang on to a Champions League spot – 12/1 ahead of the tie at the King Power.

Both managers are likely to make several changes to their starting XI's, but I think it will the visitors who edge what promises to be a terrific tie.

Chelsea are 6/4 favourites at Unibet with the Foxes 15/8 and the draw at 5/2. Lampard's side have won both their games since the restart 2-1 and the recommendation is for Chelsea to win and both teams to score at 18/5 with William Hill.

The last tie sees City travel to St James's Park and holders City will want to keep a firm grip on the domestic cup competitions having already landed the League Cup earlier in the season.

HOT FORM: Toon's Saint Maximin

Short

No domestic treble this year for City but they could easily land a hat-trick of major trophies and they began the weekend 5/6 to lift the Cup for a seventh time.

City are a best priced 1/5 to win in 90 minutes and that is far too short.

Newcastle are 4/1 with bet365 to either win the game in 90 minutes or take the tie to extra-time and that must be the recommendation.

Of course, if City score early they could turn the game into a procession, but the Magpies are 12 points above the relegation zone, and this is a massive game for the club.

SCRUM ON BACK WITH AUGUST 2 THREESOME

By PAUL THOMAS

SUPER League will come back from lockdown on August 2.

There will be three games on that Sunday with Hull KR facing Toronto Wolfpack, St Helens take on Catalans Dragons and Huddersfield against Leeds.

All of the matches will be played at a single behind-closed-doors venue.

Then the following weekend will see a complete restart of the season for all clubs.

It won't be a normal campaign with the revised fixture list comprising 15 rounds of matches. Then there will be a top-four semi-final playoff with the winners going forward to the Grand Final.

That is expected to be played some time in November — and it's not known whether a crowd can be present by that time.

CONFIDENT: Elstone

Plans have already been made for the 2021 season which will start as planned in February.

A Super League spokesman said: "At the moment, and until government directives change, Betfred Super League fixtures will take place behind closed doors at a small number of neutral venues that meet the stringent guidance from both government and the game's clinical advisory group.

"Super League is also closely monitoring government directives in both France and Canada."

There have been no Super League matches since March 15 thanks to the coronavirus shutdown.

The sport's executive chairman Robert Elstone says preparations are being made for the venue to hold the opening three fixtures.

Further details will be revealed in the coming weeks. He said: "Above all we know that fans want to get back into grounds to support their teams. We will continue to follow government advice and work alongside the RFL, clinical advisors and ground safety personnel to ensure that when that time comes, Super League is ready to welcome back its fans at the first opportunity.

"Our final fixture schedule needs to respond to opportunities that will unfold over the coming weeks and full details of fixtures, venues will be confirmed as they become known."

£110M TO GET JADON

MANCHESTER United have been told to pay an eyewatering £110m for Jadon Sancho.

That's how much Borussia Dortmund want for the England winger if he's to leave Germany this summer.

The Reds have emerged as the only real option for the 20-year-old after Chelsea brought in Timo Werner and are expected to add Kai Havertz to their forward line.

United boss Ole Gunnar Solskjaer has made no secret of his admiration for the wide man who has lit up the Bundesliga since leaving noisy neighbours City.

It was thought a deal could be done in the region of £80m but the German giants want to keep Sancho and will only budge if the summer offer is massive.

CHAMPS TRAORE BID

CHAMPIONS Liverpool have made their first bid for Wolves winger Adama Traore.

By JOHN ANTHONY

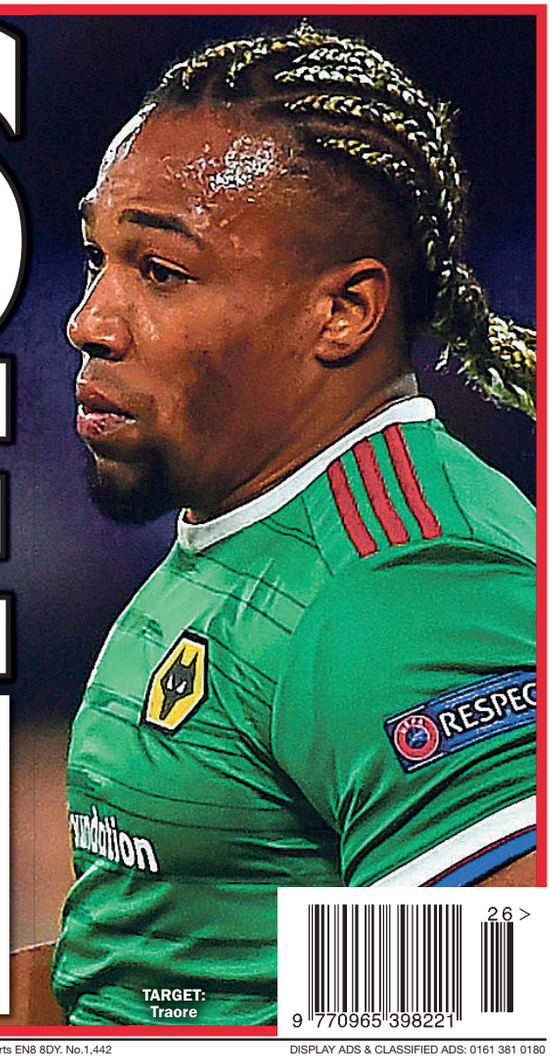
Reports in Spain suggest the Anfield giants have fired the first shots in what could be a long battle.

The 24-year-old Spaniard has been a revelation for the Molineux men with a host of strong performances this season. He has chipped in with four goals and nine assists in 30 appearances.

Liverpool are looking for more options to back up their front three of Sadio Mane, Mo Salah and Roberto Firmino. The Spanish reports suggest Jurgen Klopp sees Traore as the perfect addition to his squad.

The sticking point could be price. Wolves have slapped a £70m price tag on their prized asset — who is thought to be keen on the move.

But Liverpool could pay that much as Traore fits their ideal transfer profile becaus he's in the relatively early stages of his career so will hold his value.



TARGET: Traore
